I T is known by: few individuals in the conaties of Jefferson, She by, and Oldham that I have a remedy that effectually enres Hooping-Cough. If there are remedies in Journal of Europe that cure, it is not within my howhelds, (except the one I use.) Physicians tell the families they attend it early be enred. I have not doubt they are candid in what they state. Togothem the medicine in use, and lubtes sleep a deep-root of prejudice, the faculty are invited to get the uncliner, and tell them no more it cannobe cured. ### JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE, OF KENTUCKY.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, GENERAL JOSEPH LANE, OF OREGON.

To the Democratic Voters of Ken-

FRANKORT, Ky., June 26th, 1860. WHEREAS, The undersigned, Democratic State Central Committee of Kentucky, have heretofore ealled a State Convention of the tional contests.

Attention, Democrats.

We are requested to announce that there will be a Convention of the Democracy of Franklin county, to be held at the court-house, on Monday, the 16th inst., for the purpose of one is probhesying on the probable results of appointing delegates to the State Convention, the election, it may be interesting to our readand of ratifying the nominations for Pres. dent and Vice President. Let every Democrat in the county attend!

We give up a large space in our columns to the publication of the able and interesting speech of Ilon. Ilumphrey Marshall, in support of the Democratic ticket.

From the Lebanon Democrat we learn that an attempt was made to hold a Democratic meeting in Marion county for the purpose of appointing delegates to the Frankfort Convention, which failed on account of the factions course of the Douglasites. The adherents of the "Rump Convention" afterwards held a meeting to themselves and appointed delegates to go to Louisville. According to the Lebanon Ken d strict elector, proved himself more than a motch for all the Douglas speakers in attendance, Cupt. Graves, Dr. White & Co., who attempted to discuss with him.

Col. Sam Pike in the Field.

We are pleased to notice that the Mt. Sterling Legion is again revived under the editorial control of the veteran Pike, and that it has the true Democratic colors flying at its mast head. The Legion is a valuable addition to the number of Breckinridge papers in Kentucky, and we trust that it will be liberally supported by the Democracy of the district in which it is published.

From the editorial in the last issue of the Lebanon Democrat we are satisfied that paper intends to support Breckinridge through out the canvass. It is published in a nest o Douglasites, but we trust its love of Democ- ocrat, and the Lebanon Democrat. racy will triumph over motives of merc self-interest and temporary expediency. W shall copy its leading editorial of this week so soon as we can find room for it in our col umns, and bespeak for it in advance an attentive perusal.

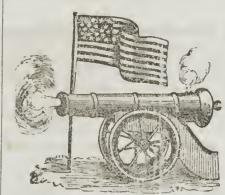

The Democracy of Campbell county held a rousing meeting at Alexandria, on Monday last, fully indorsing Breckingidge and Lane. In the officers of the meeting, and in the delegates appointed to the State Convention, we notice the names of the bone and sinew of the Democracy of Campbell. We g've publicity to their proceedings in this issue of our paper.

A number of Kentuckians, living in Washington City, have organized an association to aid in the election of the candidates of hood" were addressed, and there was also and Lane. The Democrats of Mason county held a ratification meeting on Saturday last. It was largely attended, and the utmost enthusiasm prevailed. Speeches were made by Col. Thos B. Stevenson, R. II. Forester, Col. W. S. Rand and others.

Ex-President Tyler has written a letter in favor of the election of Breckinridge and Lane.

The Irvine Convention nominated B. J. Pr. TER, Esq., of Mt. Sterling, for the Appellate Judgeship in that district. Mr. Peters is an able lawyer and a sound Democrat, and we congratulate the Convention upon a nomination so eminently proper in itself and so certain of the popular indorsement at the polls in August next. THE BANNE & COUNTY FOR ringing for the meeting, a large number of the Breckinridge and Lane.

SWEET OWEN SPEAKS!

OWENTON, OWEN Co., Ky., July 2, 1860. A meeting of the Democracy of this county was held at the Court house, on Monday, the 2d instant, it being quarterly court day; and duly J. B. Mordoff, Secretary.

five, was appointed, consisting of W. G. Simpson, inclous and heretical doctrine of Squatter Sover O. P. Grover, C. Forsee, J. N. Witt, and W. H. eignty.

Resolved, That we hold and will maintain that Moore, who after retiring submitted the following, which were unanimously adopted, to-wit:

The Democracy of Owen, in Convention assembled, deem the occasion a fitting one to manithe adoption of a platform containing the timehonored principles of the party, and in the nomi-Breckinridge, of Kentucky, and Joseph Lane, of ritorial Legislature,

In the action of the Convention making those nominations, we recognize the triumph of sound Democratic principles over the scramble of spoilsmen, the lust for power and place, and the attempted rule of violence!

The Democracy of Owen have the right to rejoice in the nomination of John C. Breckinridge free; and their enthusiastic delight will only be surpussed when the battle shall have been fought.

Resolved. That the proceedings of this meeting

A part, and no unimportant part of the Ash- tucks land district, in the memorable struggles for Congress in which our distinguished standard-bearer -first in 1851, again in 1853-led the Democratie coherts to battle and to victory, and triumphed over unexampled majorities and unheard of corruption. He is bound to the Dimocracy of Owen as with huoks of triple steel.

"For when had we a friend That was not Polydore's; Or, Polydore an enemy That was not ours?"

1. Resolved, Therefore, that we hall with that cnthusiasm which patriots feel, the action of the late Baltimore National Democratic Convention, and we bereby ratify and affirm the same, both in the programme of principles enunciated, and in the nominations made, pledging the Demo-eracy of Owen to sustain the action of said Convention, by giving to the nominees the largest majority of any county in the Commonwealth

2. Resolved, That candor commands us to say, that the Democracy of Owen, more in sorrow than in anger, observed the action of our late delegate in the Charleston and Baltimore Conventions, H. D Helm, Esq.; first, in voting for the minority, and against the majority report of the Committee on a platform, in atter violation of the resolu-tions adopted with great manumity by the 8th of January Convention at Frankfort, known as "the Rice Amendment;" second, in continuing to act with the free soil wing of said Convention, when it had become disintegrated, sectional, and fac tious; and finally, in his ultimate action in voting for the nominees of that Convention, in opposition to the representative man of the National De mocraey-a cherished and native son of Kentucky and the Democracy of Owen, having been thus misrepresented and deceived by their anid delogite, do most sidemuly repudinte his action in the late Convention, and although not wishin rebuke without a hearing, we can but feel that we were deceived and misrepresented! we hope

3. Resolved, That all thanks are due to the gallint representatives from Kentneky, to the late Baltimure Convention, for withdrawing therefrom, when it became manifest that it was no longer national, but sectional. That it ignored the ime-honored principles of Democracy-that vio lence ruled the hour, and that the rights of the States, and the integrity of the party, were sub ordinated by faction to the paltry triumph of men and place hunters.

4. Resolved, That we approve of the action of the Democratic State Central Committee, in calling a Convention to meet in Frankfort on the 18th inst., to nominate a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, to fill the vucancy occasioned by the death of R. Revill, and to consider and act upon such other neathers as may be brought helore it, touching the interests of the party," and that the following delegates be appointed to represent Owen county in said Convention, to wit: H. H. Head, A. G. Rice, J. H. Haydon, J. W. Smith, W. J. Soires, Jas. Fitzgerold, E. F. Burns, Henry G'les, J. N. Witt, E. J. Santers, B. Walker, J. B. Mordoff, W. G. Simpson, J. Gale, R. H. Gale, R. Ganes, J. M. Reed, D. L. Caumock, John Holbrook, Geo. H. mmels, A. P. Grover, J. Lee, II G. Smith, champion of Pulaski county, Ky, offers to J. C. Glass, G. H. A. G. W. Prowell, A. G. Lee, N. M. Democratic Meeting in McLean Co. At a meeting of the Democracy of McLean Co., in Calhoun, on Monday, 2d of July, 1860, to appoint delegates to the Convention, to be held in Frankfort on the 18th inst., John II. Johnson was called to the Chair, and John J. Dennis was appointed Secretary.

On motion of Wm. Calhoun, the Chair appointed J. L. Houston, J. W. Bickers, Sam. A. Johnson, A. Dyer, and John Rowan, a Committee to prepare Resolutions, who reported the following, which were adopted:

1. Resolved. That we approve of the holding a Convention in Frankfort on the 18th in-t., to nominate a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals of Kentucky, and for other purposes.

2. Resolved. That the following gentlemen be appointed delegates to the said John Rowan, Sam. A. Jahnson, J. W. Bickers, Berg. Houston, E. Fleming, Wm Calham, J. L. Houston, John J. Dennis, A. JOHN J. DENNIS, Secretary.

The leading Organ is out for the National Democratic ticket, and down upon the "Rump Convention." We copy its comments upon the nomination:

The news of the disruption of the Baltimore and its principles, and unworthy the support and convention has already reached every part of the confidence of any true, genuine member of our union. No one has been taken by surprise. The course of Judge Donglas and his friends was directly calculated to produce that result. They have sown the wind and must now be content to reap the whirlward. The disruption of the Convention and the partial disneganization of the Democratic party, are justly chargeable to the mad ambition of an arch demagogue, who would rather reign in Hell than serve in Heaven.

Judge Douglas, with all the pride of his lofty eloquent speeches from Judge R. H. Gale, J. D. Lillard, A. P. Graver, and Mr. Buckly, and closed and lost in his new character, the representative and embodiment of squatter sovereignty, and as of the State can count on Old Owen-better known an apostate from democratic principles. If he had been the nominee of the Baltimore Convention, there are some who would have sup-ported him, but as the candidate of a faction of lisorganizers, it would be foul attaint of treason even to suspect them of it.

HON. HUMPHREY MARSHALL.

Substance of the remarks of Hon. Humphrey Marshall, on the evening of the 25th, when colled for by the Serenaders. GENTLEMEN: I am not in the habit of receiv ing calls from Democratic masses; but, it would an affectati n to conceal my knowledge that I am indebted for the honor of this visit to your desire to hear, from my own lips, a confirmation of the rumor that I will support lireckingidge and Line at the next Presidential election.

I checrfully reuder my own testimony to the truth of that statement: [Applause.]

It might have been more prudent to defer this declaration until alter a free conference with those friends in Kentucky with whom I have heretofore acted, and by whom my past exceer has been so generously sustained. Others may watch the direction of the popular current, who wish to swim on its side to a haven of success; my ambition is not for place or preferment; it rises no higher than to the simple performance of duty, and I leave consequences to take care of them-selves. I have no hesitation as to the position it becomes me, at this crisis, to assume; and I should be recreant to my own sense of the obligation a free conzenowes to his country, were I not, when called upon, to advance to the occupancy of that position with the firmness in I abscrity which import a union of my conscience and my action unon the line of conduct I mean to pursue.

Geatlemen, I am familiar with the points upon which the Democrats have failed to agree. They involve principles which I have frequently discussed, in Congress and out of it—an the stump, at home, and elsewhere. I nm not now taking a stand for the first time upon those p inciples. I made, in 1856, a somewhat celebrated declaration, that, between James Buchanan, if he were the expon ent of squatter sovereign y, and J. C. fremont, as the exponent of the doctrine of the Wilmot Proviso, I would not to-sup a copper for choice. I was then discussing the Cincinnati platform be fore the peuple, and I then saw the ambiguity which made it Janus faced—presenting one view to the North and another to the South. South ern Democrats did not beheve me. They de-nonneed my suspicion as the effect of partisan rancor. I told them then that Mr. Daughas did did, and that, one day or another, they would had all the evils which could flow from such a persistence in modutaining party lines at the expense of important principles, would "come honce to roost." must be permitted to say I did not auticipate the rupture which occurred at Charleston, and the ties which bount the Democratic party to-gether, North and So th, but it is a homage to It exhibits the Democrats who have a thousand times, and as ready to prefer sound principles to utsound party associations. It is evidence, which a considerate people will regard, that here is a wide difference of principle—of cardinal, vital principle-that no force of party attraction can withstand, and which demands a settlement, final and satisfactory.

Gentlemen, alter the Whig party went to pieces favor of the principles of the compromises of 1859-after the American party severed in 1856, because Northern Americans would not yield this most baneful theme of "anti slavery agita tion"—I tried in vain in the last speech I made agitation. AVOW THEIR OWN RIGHTS IN THESE FABRICAGES and that call renders it imperative, in my opinion, that every legal voter in those States should turn in an elevated station, to do nothing and do it handsomely. Little men always fail at this, because their desire to have a sion. I cannot imagine a wider mistake than those gentlemen have made who would persuade our Northern people that the slaveholding States have been ind fferent to their rights in the Territories, or their equality under the Constitution and the laws. I think they must find themselves Presidency asserts the principles, on the principles, on the principles of the principles of the principles.

Southern men.

I shall never believe, until the fact is placed beyond dispute, by a count of our votes, that the people of the slaveholding States will be willing to write their own voluntary relinquishment of their constitutional rights, or present themselves, all naked and voked, before the Black Republian chiefs, asking to pass "the Coudine Forks." To, gentlemen, no; the reople of my section know their rights, and they will maintain them. They have asked for nothing more than mere plain rights, and, my word for it, they will be con-teated with nothing less. At any rate, they will never come up, voluntarily, to be shorn of privileges which belong to them as equals in this common partnership, or throw these away by a mani-lestation of indifference to the result when their rights are flatly challenged. If they do, how will the history of such a result read? Thus: It being charged by Mr. Donglas that the slaveholder from Kentucky can only hold his property in the common Territory of the United States by permission of those who first enter the Territory and institute order under a Territorial Govern ment established by Congress, this question was referred to Kentneky herself, Breckinridge being the advocate before that people of their right to equality for persons and property in the Ter-ritories with the people from other States. It came to pass, in this state of the case, that Kentucky discarded her own son and abandoned her ights, and took off her own civic garments and clothed herself in sackcloth and ashes, and weat orth in the train of her Northern superiors, crying "unclean, nuc ean."

I tell you, my countrymen, there is not a slave holding State in this Union will do this thing -It is fully to believe it. When the voice of Ken tucky shall be heard upon the gale, her mountains will be vocal and her valleys ring with the cry of Union and Equality-Equality forever. She cannot be persuaded to indifference. Her freemen are intelligent and spirited, and they under stand what this proposition mesns. They know the Supreme Court has decided that Congress has no constitutional power to pass a law prohibiting them from going upon the public domain with their property, as a citizen of a free State goes there with his property. They will stand by that fecision, for we all argued that such was the law of our case before the court decided it. The Reublicans may say they care nothing for the decision, and will not respect the court; we believe they will not be able to execute their threats, and we will, at any time, wait for them to attempt it. But when Mr. Douglas preaches to us not entertain the same view of the platform they though Congress cannot bar vs from the Territo did, and that, one day or another, they would had ries, it can create an instrumentality which can and will keep us out, or will render our property nseless if we do go in, our people are not so sto pid as to swallow what he offers, nor will they stand sirently by and see him make a state of the was cons mmated at Baltimore. It may sever did not accept his doctrine as the true measure of Ah! but methinks I hear some one ask why we will not stand by Bell and Everett under their panominated John C. Breckinridge as at last awa-tri-tic motta, "The Union, the Constitution, and kening to the facts which I have stated to them the enforcement of the laws?" I answer for my self: because a question has been raised among ns which their platform does not solve, and which I render them the tribute of my respect for the choice they have made, and I think their country will do the same.

Would leave us open to misinterpretation and I deture misrepresentation. If the Douglas Dema crats, who advocate Squatter Sovereignty, finding Fell w citizens, the rupture of the Demonstration and Everett and to defeat fireckinings, and Everett and Ever view of the equality to which our people are en-titled in the Territories. Under ordinary circum stances Bell and Everett would make a most respectable combination-under ordinary encumstances, the opposition to Democracy would sna tain it even on the boad generality which the Constitutional Union party has lonnehed as suffiient and best for the times. But Cherleston and Il drimore have made extraordinary circum on this issue in 1852, because Northern Whigs stances which summon us all to action, in our own "spit upon the platform" which pronounced in behalf, in another direction. Of a winter's night behalf, in another direction. Of a winter's night I would prefer to listen to the old farmer by his iceside, but if news came that wolves were in the folds, threatening he voo among the sheep of our pustures, I would leave the hieside and the larmer, and follow to the field the young, vigorous, in Congress, to evade this is-ue, by creating some other upon which to divide parties, until time the allorded me the hope that he would protect could cure the evils which would flow from this my property and have a proper care for my inter-ab undon their own rights. Mr. Webster cm. On motion of Dr Chipley, the Governor was abundon their own rights. Mr. Webster em-braced this whole question ten years ago. His speech in the Senate, in 1850, in twenty lines contains all we have ever advanced upon this question of Territorial savereignty and of protection to property in the Territories. I keep that speech always tyme, and I will close these remarks by reading to you what the great man of New England said in 1850 on these questions. Where he stand in that speech I stand now, and it is intere-ting to observe how far Northern sentiment has advanced, how steadily Southern sentiment has settled upon the true granted. We will not be diverted from it. We will yet maintain it firmly and with success. The step in the true di rection is to rally upon Breckinridge and Lane without regard to party.

Mr. Marshall theu read the following extract from Mr Webster's speech, after which he retired with applianse, and the stand was then occupied by Hon. Mr. Hennett, of Kentucky:

"The argument is, that hy possibility it may be come necessary to pass laws respecting slavery, if slavery shall ever exist there. Naw, I suppose the amendment proper to be introduced for the purpose which has been signified by the gentlemen who have spoken would be to strike out these words, and to say that the Territorial ken up and discussed Legislature shall have no anthority to pass any law for establishing or excluding slavery in the Territory. It appears to me that this is the uphot of the whole matter. That is very proper, because I take it that the meaning of the whole is that this question shall be left to the people of the State to decide after it becomes a sovereign by admission into the Union on the same footing with the original States It may then be a question for the people themselves to decide, for I take it to be clear that it is a municipal question. It is a question for the decision of the people in their State sovereignty, and there may be propriety—there certainly is no improprity—in excluding the exercise of any power in the Territorial Government for the establishment or exclusion of slavery. "It has been advanced that these people, while "It has been advanced that these people, while a Territory, have a right to do anything and sum fixed at $150. everything that belongs to the rights of mau.
